

General Information

Monterotondo is an Italian town of 40 771 inhabitants in the province of Rome in the Lazio region and is among the city decorated with the Silver Medal for Military Valour , awarded for the heroic resistance and sacrifices of its population during the Second World War. It is located along the path of two of the most ancient routes of Lazio : the Nomentana and the Via Salaria and is about 26 km from the capital .

railways

Makes a stop in Monterotondo line FL1 (Railway Lazio Regional) (Orte - Fara Sabina / Poggio Mirteto - Fiumicino Airport)

urban Mobility

Monterotondo is accessible through the lines Co.Tra.L of the public transport service in the region Lazio. In addition, the city is also connected with the municipalities of Sant'Angelo Romano , Guidonia and Tivoli. On the Via Salaria , in Monterotondo Scalo, buses go to and from Rieti. Urban transport interiors are managed by the company Red Bus with 4 CO lines .

Also on Cotral manages the local shuttle , which serves the towns of Mentone and New Source , and their villages to reach the railway station of Monterotondo .

events

Important cultural event is also the historical re-enactment renaissance Fasti autumn which is held every year on the third weekend of October. In each edition is recalled an incident in the history of the Renaissance city for the period between the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries , when the feud of Monterotondo was owned by the powerful Orsini family .

Another event that takes place in Monterotondo Scalo Monterotondo , born on the occasion of a festival Summer Eretina . It is a festival to participate free of charge.

In addition, every second Sunday of the month from September to May in Piazza Duomo , Via Cavour , Piazza del Popolo (Piazza dei Leoni) , Via Garibaldi, Piazza della Repubblica and wide sprawled in the center of town and from June to August in Viale Bruno Buozzi (The walk) takes an important antiques fair much appreciated by the citizens of Monterotondo and the surrounding area .

From 2013 takes place in Monterotondo, in Cinema Mancini and with the final evening at the Palazzo Orsini , the Festival of Cerase , Italian film festival copyright . It is the smallest film festival in Italy.

Monuments and places of interest

The Cathedral of Monterotondo , Basilica of Santa Maria Maddalena is located in Piazza Pope John Paul II (formerly Piazza Duomo) in Monterotondo (RM) , and one of the elements that, together with the opposite Piazza del Popolo and Via Cavour straight axis , the neighborhood structure built in the seventeenth century by the Barberini family , owners of the manor .

Convent of Friars Minor Capuchin Monterotondo

The church of the Capuchins or St. Francis of Assisi is located in Piazza San Francesco d' Assisi , in the district of the Capuchins.

The church of Madonna delle Grazie is located in the homonymous square in the neighborhood "Santa Maria" . Among those existing in Monterotondo is certainly the oldest, even if you do not know the exact year of construction .

Church of San Rocco

Porta Garibaldi

Near the church of San Rocco is the Porta Garibaldi, recently restored. Designed by Roman Gables in 1722 , was completed in 1751. Piazza of the Lions - The Lions of the fountains in the Piazza del Popolo is part of the development project commissioned by the Barberini

The Walk - It's a long pedestrian street of Via Bruno Buozzi , meeting every day of kids , but not limited to Monterotondo , but also of the surrounding countries .